Dear Admiral Turner:

I am writing to invite you to participate in an evening dialogue on Wednesday, March 19th, on the future of American foreign policy in light of the crises in Iran and Afghanistan. George Ball, former Under Secretary of State, will open the discussion and will be followed by Senator Claiborne Pell of Rhode Island, a senior member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and Paul Findley, Representative of Illinois of the House Foreign Affairs Committee. Other public and academic figures will participate in the discussion. Attendance will be limited to permit a full and frank discussion. I will moderate the discussion.

In keeping with our evening dialogue format, we will meet in The Wilson Center which is located on the third floor of the Smithsonian Institution Building which is the "red castle" facing the Mall at 1000 Jefferson Drive, S.W. We meet for tea at 5:30 and the speakers' formal presentations begin promptly at 6:00. After a break for dinner at 7:15, we reassemble at 8:30 for a general discussion in which the entire group is invited to participate. The evening's program concludes at 10:00. There is parking on Jefferson Drive in front of the building, and we also have a lot behind (south of) the building which can be entered from Independence Avenue. Please enter the building through the east door; a guard will direct you from there.

We hope that you will be able to join us for what should prove to be a most stimulating and important discussion of these timely questions regarding our foreign policy. Will you please let us know as soon as possible if you will be able to attend by returning the enclosed card? If you should have any questions, please telephone Louise Platt or Cynthia Ely at 381-5989.

Sincerely,

James H. Billington
